Sheriff Auctioned for School Benefit

The Peninsula Catholic High School held a silent and live auction February 21, 2009. Sheriff Gabe Morgan was one of the prizes. A bidding war over the "Sheriff for the Day" package led to two highest bidders. Highlights of the package include a ride along with the sheriff, attend court and enjoy lunch with him. The sheriff is pictured with Bill Lehmann and with Resa Muhler. They each bid $275.00 for a total of $550.00. The school is a 501 (c) 3. Its fourth annual auction helps meet their financial needs in making education affordable.
