Law Enforcement Motorcycle Riders Compete in Mid-Atlantic Competition Benefiting the March of Dimes

The 9th Annual Chesapeake Bay Police Motorcycle Rodeo & Skills Competition will feature the best motorcycle riders law enforcement has to offer from all over the Mid-Atlantic region, including riders from the Newport News Sheriff's Office Motor Unit. The competition provides an opportunity for police officers and sheriff's deputies to square off in precision riding events, improve their motor riding skills, and exchange new training ideas.

The event is open to the public and benefits the March of Dimes. Over $60,000 has been raised for the March of Dimes since the inaugural event in 2005.
