Three suspects arrested by the Newport News Sheriff's Office for smuggling contraband into the city jail

On Friday, May 17, 2013, the Newport News Sheriff's Office made three arrests in a case involving a cell phone smuggled in to the jail for an inmate.

Deputies with the Sheriff's Office acted on a tip they received on May 15. Their investigation led to the following arrests:

CBM food service contract employee Samuel A. Frazier (40). He is charged with providing a cell phone to an incarcerated person, and conspiracy. Both are felony charges. Frazier is being held at the Newport News City Jail on a $5,000 bond.

Inmate Anthony D. Carey (25) is charged with being a prisoner in possession of a cell phone, and conspiracy. Both are felonies. He remains in the Newport News City Jail where he is serving time on a forgery conviction.

Carey's 22-year old girlfriend, Britany T. Stewart is the third person arrested. She is charged with providing a cell phone to an incarcerated person, and conspiracy. Both are felony charges. Stewart is being held at the Newport News City Jail on a $2,000 bond.
